

Findings of a Recent Survey

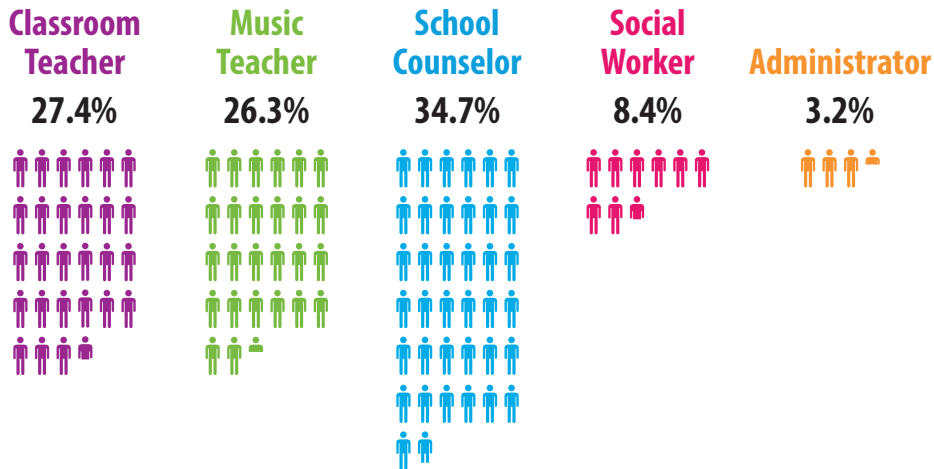

QuaverSEL equips educators with a full year of highly engaging, evidence-based social and emotional lessons. Each QuaverSEL lesson is packed with a series of engaging multimedia resources. Lessons are versatile and designed to be led by any educator on your elementary school campus. The content is developmentally appropriate and vertically aligned over grades Pre-K to 5.

What Do Educators Think About QuaverSEL?

"[QuaverSEL] has helped with students self-awareness and ability to give voice to their feelings and experience. They also have and are showing greater empathy to others."

QuaverEd recently surveyed educators who have taught using QuaverSEL. 95 participants had been teaching with QuaverSEL for more than 3 months.

SURVEY RESPONDENTS WERE:

QuaverSEL curriculum adapts to the needs of any educator and each student. The lessons are flexible for whole group instruction, small group interventions, and individual interventions.

How do you most often use QuaverSEL?

Pre-K through 5th educators find QuaverSEL helps students:

92.2%

Have more self-awareness

87%

Have greater self-management skills

87%

Demonstrate more empathy for self and others

89.6%

Make more responsible decisions

"[QuaverSEL] has helped with beginning meaningful conversations."

See what educators are saying about QuaverSEL...

"Our kids LOVE the songs and the lessons. Both are relatable and easy to understand. We love the accessibility and ease of use of both."

"I feel that QuaverSEL has impacted my students by encouraging them to better themselves and gives them the tools to help them through life situations."

"I have had teachers and parents send me messages about their student/child listening to the songs over and over again."

Start a free 30-day preview today at QuaverEd.com/Preview

Seriously Fun Teaching