

Create SEL Leaders of the Future

Classroom technology is always changing, and it can be hard to know where to start. Teaching in the 21st century means educators have access to a world of information at their fingertips, but where can a young educator begin?

Quaver's HigherEd Programs offer:

- FREE resources for methods and practicum courses
- FREE curriculum for student teaching
- FREE curriculum for new graduates

...that work with proven traditional pedagogies!

You and your students get access to the full curriculum – lesson plans, supplements, and more! QuaverEd cloud-based resources make it easy for students to take the resources with them wherever they may be teaching, whether it's in a school building or in a distance teaching environment.

Quaver's HigherEd Program for School Counseling majors is formatted to a four-week syllabus to help you guide students through their journey into the 21st-century school.

Week 1 Importance of SEL

Week 2 Building a Positive Learning Environment

Week 3 Customization and Classroom Management

Week 4 Implementing Strategies

See what teachers and counselors are saying about QuaverSEL!

"I have been thrilled with QuaverSEL in my classroom! I have found it to be engaging with a great impact on social/emotional learning. My students absolutely love the lessons/activities and I can see the impact on their social skills daily. In my 22 years of being a school counselor, I have not seen another program with Quaver's level of quality and depth."

Heather Eskridge

Rutherford County School District, TN

"My students and I have been loving QuaverSEL! They get so excited to see what activities are coming up next. The lessons are eye-catching, engaging, and prompt us to have discussions about important topics like kindness, respect, and responsibility. I love seeing my kids so excited about social and emotional learning."

Amy Brown

Framingham Public Schools, MA

"I recognized right away that QuaverSEL definitely reaches the social and emotional needs of today's students. I'm very excited about what this resource will do to help my students to succeed in life."

Marcus Johnson

Cypress-Fairbanks ISD, TX
